“ My prayers are with the family. Kim and I went to Tri-County Tec together to study Child Development together. She was also an honorary bridesmaid at my wedding 40 years ago. Kim loved children and I am glad to see she was able to open her own daycare. May God grant you peace during your loss.

“ Kim was a sweet person. Always kind to Pat and I, I remember how she would get 2 loaves of garlic bread when we would have spaghetti. One to burn and one to eat. And she always burned the first one. She would get carried away doing something and forget it was in the oven. We always laughed about that. We will see each other again.
