“ I loved Kim like a daughter. She was a very caring, sweet, and thoughtful young lady. She will be missed very much. No longer in pain makes it a little better for all the people that loved her. She was way too young for this horrible, terrible, cancer to take her away from us all. Love you Kim.

“ *This was one strong, brave girl! She faced a lot of challenges in her life but never gave up. Now, she can be at peace in heaven with her mom & granny & even her Uncle Jimmie, my dad.
I'm so sorry Cody & Lindsey for the pain you must feel from losing your Mom at such a young age. 43 is just so young!
Chris, you took such good care of my cousin, right up to the very end. You should feel proud of that.
Meloney, I don't even know what to say. You have endured so much loss and you handle it with such grace.
I'm praying for comfort for all of us who miss having her here.
I love you, Kim.
xoxo
