“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. You all have our deepest sympathy and prayers in this time of grief, but look to the Lord for help and strength as we know exactly what you are going through as we too lost one of our twin sons 3 years ago. He was 19. God will help you believe in that, He will comfort you and help you through. ##imported-begin##Ricky and Darlene Owens##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know that you are going through a terrible time, and that there is so much pain, but please remember to keep up head up and that she has gone to a better place. God had his plans for her, and her path she traveled, although her road wasn't as long as we hoped for, she did wonders to the world. She has left behind 3 sweet children, a husband, brothers, sisters, parents, grandparents, and a list of friends that will keep this family in our thoughts and prayers daily. I hate that you are having to experience this pain, but she no longer has to witness any more pain. I pray that only time will ease this pain that you are experiencing, and that these children will carry a special part of their mother with them daily. Please, just turn to the Lord and give him your faith and remember that He will not give you no more than you are able to handle.##imported-begin##Kayla Blair##imported-end##

“Kristy, we love you & miss you. You will forever be in our hearts & on our minds. We never thought that this was even possible, but now we see how short life really is. You've definitely left your mark in the world & a place in our hearts. There's no words that can describe our love for you nor our pain of having to face life without you being a phone call away. As hard as it is, I know you are in a better place, far beyond anything we've ever experienced & your God's Angel now but you will always be our Angel 2. You were such a beautiful girl & an even great mother, sister, & friend.. We love you Kristy###imported-begin##Keith & Brittney##imported-end##
