“ LAMAR WAS MARRIED TO MY SISTER TENA AND EVEN THOUGH THEY WENT THEIR SEPARATE WAYS IN THE PAST YEAR, HE WAS AND ALWAYS WILL BE MY BROTHER-IN-LAW, A PART OF OUR FAMILY.

LAMAR HAS WENT TO THE RESCUE FOR SO MANY PEOPLE THAT CROSSED HIS PATH IN THIS LIFE, INCLUDING MYSELF! FOR MANY DIFFERENT REASONS, ALWAYS SUPPORTIVE AND ENCOURAGING!! I WILL MISS HIM.

AS MOST OF US LEARN ALONG LIFE'S PATH, I DIDN'T REALIZE HOW MUCH I LOVED HIM UNTIL WE NO LONGER HAD HIM WITH US. MY SISTER TENA IS HEART BROKEN , LAMAR WAS THE LOVE OF HER LIFE! THEY SHARED MANY GOOD YEARS, PART OF MY SISTER WENT WITH LAMAR, WHICH IS THE WAY IT SHOULD BE.

MY PRAYERS AND THOUGHTS ARE WITH MY SISTER AND LAMARS FAMILY. THE MOUNTAIN WILL NEVER FEEL THE SAME. I TOOK MY 1ST RIDE UP DAY BEFORE YESTERDAY SINCE HIS PASSING, HE RODE WITH ME THERE AND BACK. I LOVE YOU LAMAR AND I WILL ALWAYS MISS YOU!##imported-begin##DEBRA LEWIS##imported-end##

“ Randel has been a close friend of Lamar's for many year's. They have enjoyed many "adventures" together and ALWAYS had fun. I only had the pleasure of knowing Lamar for about 7 years. He always welcomed you with a smile & a hug and "what can I get ya." To say he will be missed is an understatement, Bonner Road will not be the same. WE LOVE YOU LAMAR & WILL NEVER FORGET YOU!!

“ I met lamar at a friend house in 1982. We dated and fell in love and lived together a few years. He was one the most caring, creative and trustworthy people that I've ever known. We always had so much fun whatever we were doing.

One of my fondest memories of Lamar is when were living at his A-frame and it was the year 1983 and it was bitter cold. Jim and Cheri Cooper were staying with us. We were huddled together next to this tiny coal stove trying to stay warm as we had for several days. One evening as we all returned to the cabin after work, Lamar Said, "Katie, Come with me outside. i need you to hold my flash light." With the twist of a couple of wires and a simple wire nut a miracle happened. The heat pump that I din't know that he had came on!!! I went inside and jim and Cheri were as surprised as I was. We didn't know if we should kill him or kiss him. It was a good day. I miss you, Lamar. Sherrie and Phyllis, I love you both and I'm so sorry.##imported-begin##Katie Rogers##imported-end##
