“ I have the sweetest childhood memories with the Poore family at Corinth Baptist Church. Lane was always willing to lead our youth group on mission trips. I remember him as a man of few words but passionate about helping others in need. Heaven is sweeter today and I believe Lane is smiling down!

“ To all of the family, I am so sorry to hear about Lane and I know he is in Heaven with our savior and a lot of friends from Vietnam and the military and family. He had a great military career and was a real hero. I know because we talked about our military experiences several times thru the years I went to Keowee school with Lane, Maurice, and Alvin and they were friends to everyone at school. Rest In Peace my friend, we will meet again.

“ Chief Poore believed in taking care of his troops more than any leader I ever met. It was an honor to get to serve with him. He was always happy to help in any way he could and he treated everyone the same regardless of their rank. He will be missed, but never forgotten.

“ Cheif Poore introduced me to the South Carolina Army National Guard. He was a fine mentor, and friend to lower enlisted soldiers. Always there with a kind word or to lend a hand. The world is a lesser place without him.
