

Mrs. Laura Angela Moran

April 3, 1937 - January 16, 2026

Laura Angela Moran, 88, of Seneca, South Carolina, beloved wife of Richard M. Moran, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Friday, January 16, 2026, at Oconee Memorial Hospital.

Born in Hicksville, New York, Laura was the cherished daughter of the late Anthony and Angelina LaPree Marino. She was a woman of deep and unwavering faith who loved Jesus deeply and wanted everyone she met to know Him.

A devoted homemaker and the true matriarch of her family, Laura found her greatest joy in spending time with her children and grandchildren. She loved working in her garden, tending to the things she nurtured with patience and care—much like the way she loved her family. She also had a special fondness for thrifting and collecting antique tea cups and porcelain dolls.

In addition to her devoted husband, Richard, Laura is survived by her sons: Michael Moran (Sally) and Thomas Moran (Debbie); her daughters: Kathleen Messana (Frank), Laura Bachlet (Robert), Elizabeth Smith (Ron), and Angela Stark (Kevin); fourteen grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren, all of whom were richly blessed by her love, faith, and example.

In addition to her parents, Laura was preceded in death by her brothers: Joseph Natalie and William Marino; and her sister: Anita Sarle.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 PM on Friday, January 23, 2026, at Davenport Funeral Home, with entombment to follow at Oconee Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Flowers are accepted.

The family will be at their respective homes.
