“ We were certainly saddened by the passing of Leah. She was my mother's sister-in-law. My mother (Elizabeth Eskew Nuckolls) passed away 5 yrs. ago. She was the sister of Leah's late husband John Gordon "Tubby" Eskew.

Mother spent the last six years of her life in Greenville and frequently talked about her sister-in-law Smitty. The last time we saw Smitty, she came to Mother's 90th birthday party held in Anderson at the home of her grandson Dr. Peter A. Cook. This was ten years ago.

Please share our condolences with Lucretia Moss and all nieces and nephews of Smitty.##imported-begin##T.J. Nuckolls, Jr.##imported-end##

“ My sympathies to Leah's family members. I remember Leah visiting my folks, 'down on the farm in Williamston' & looked forward to visits from Uncle Sam & Aunt Bennie, and their family members.

My Sister had Leah's name because my Dad, Cecil Patterson, loved and admired Leah Smith Eskew. She was his 1st cousin and they both were given the gift of laughter. Dad, & family - gone Home before then - welcomed Leah Home. How much sweeter Heaven is.
