“ Randy & Becky,

Words are hard to find to say how sorrowful we are to hear of such a loss. This is such a tragic that no parent would ever want to face. God is with you and He knows what is best though it is so very difficult to understand at times. Continue to trust in Him, He is still God even in the valleys.

Love in Christ,

“ Dear Randy and Becky,
We were very sorry to learn of your son's death when we went online to read. Although we didn't know him, he must have been a fine young man with such loving parents. Please know that we are praying that the Lord will give you strength to see this through. You are facing the worst thing I think any parent will ever have to face, outliving your child.
