“ Lloyd, Diedre, Lloyd Jr (Butch) and my dear friend Stephanie...I am so sorry about the loss of your mother and wife. As I reflect on my childhood years, your family was always there with me. From Sunday lunches, playing football in the backyard and numerous sleepovers. A time I will always cherish. Your mom was a wonderful lady who I loved dearly. Your family has been in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Our paths crossed when we starting working for the Office for the Aging, Linda was a lot of fun and we had some great times with the senior citizens around Essex County. They loved her. We had many parallels in our lives; my birthdate was 11/14/44, had 3 children(2 girls and a boy), each of our eldest daughters were Moriah Junior Misses. I knew her as a devoted wife and mother - strong in her faith (we discussed this many times) she tried her best to help me see the "light". I will always remember her as a truly good person and know many people were touched by her love for life.
