“ Jerry, Yolanda, Donna, and your families, You are in my thoughts and prayers at this very sad time Lois was a very kind and faithful friend. We were good friends before we ever had a boyfriend. That's a lot of years ago. She was a very strong Christian, and never wavered through all the things that life threw at her. I'm thinking of the time she had Spinal Menjitis and was quarantined for days in the Hospital, her spine was drawing her backward. Doctor Moyle always reminded her that she was a miracle ever time she saw him after she recovered.

She was a great asset at the day nursery during the 1960s. Many Oconee adults, that were children then can attest to the fact that she was a super good cook. Enough reminiscing for now. Our loss is Heaven's gain. You will be greatly missed.
