“ Sorry I could not be there today. Mrs Laye will always be in my heart. She was a dedicated mother not only to her own children but to all their friends. If you were in her home you were taken care of just like her own. She fed you well and loved you well. I know she is the arms of Jesus now. I will see her once again. Family, I pray for your strenght and send you my love and hugs. ,

“ I remember Lois, Jeanette, Maargie, Myrl, Edna and Bessie siting on the porch enjoying the warm summer afernoons. Us kids Wanda, Grace, Sammy, Carolyn, Bobby, Alice, Nanncy, Earline, Dean and myself (Larry) running and playing in Lois's yard in West Union - Oh those were some pleasant, carefree days filled with fun and laughter.

I remember that it was a very special event for Bessie, Lloyd, Edna and GF to have Pearl's children come for a visit at Grandpa Brown's old homeplace. There were some interesting stories told - Probably most of them were true!

I pray for our Lord's peace and comfort be be poured out on Lois's family. Thank God for the enernal life that we have through our wonderful Lord Jesus.

*In our Savior's Love,
Larry*
