“ My name is Tim Whitfield. Ann was my wife - my best friend. I met her at Engelhard. When we met, I had a lot going on in my life. Later when I got things straightened out, I paged her on her beeper. She dropped everything and ran to me. We were together from then on. I was a loner until I met her. She and the girls showed me what love really was. I was overwhelmed. I had no idea what true love was - but now I do. Life started for me then. Ann , I did not get enough time with you. My heart is breaking at the core. Ann, until we meet again - I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH AND WILL THE REST OF MY LIFE. YOU WERE NOT ONLY MY WIFE - YOU WERE MY BEST FRIEND.

“ Well, there was only 1 Ann Westmoreland for sure! My heart is truly hurting for this loss. So sorry to all of you kids and her special husband whom she always spoke of so fondly! You were her Rock Tim and I pray for your comfort and peace. No more suffering, and she did a lot of that and mostly in silence. I have fond memories of times and talks with Ann that I will cherish and treasure always.. I hope that Ann and Hazel are having a great reunion about now, no more pain, no suffering...I can only imagine!! Prayers for all as we go forward without this special person! God Bless!
