

Lorel Christiansen Bolté

May 10, 1932 - April 3, 2009

Lorel Christiansen Bolté, 76, of Warrior Creek Drive, died at Oconee Medical Center on April 3.

Born in Richmond, California, she was the daughter of the late Major General and Mrs. James G. Christiansen. She graduated from high school in Japan and attended the University of Missouri. During her 56 years of marriage to retired U.S. Army Brigadier General Philip L. Bolté, she traveled with her husband on Army assignments to Kentucky, Germany, Georgia, Canada, New Jersey, Maryland, and Virginia. After twelve years in Burke, Virginia, in 1993, the couple settled into retirement in West Union, SC.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Christopher, his wife Elizabeth and two children, Danielle and Nicholas; Andrew, his wife Afifa and daughter Laila. She was predeceased by sons David and Timothy. She is also survived by two granddaughters, Amanda Bolté and Andi Lynn Thompson, their mother Robin Holland, and two great grandchildren, Jordan and Savannah Thompson.

Burial will be in Arlington National Cemetery.

Because Mrs. Bolté was a life member and frequent volunteer of the U.S. Cavalry Association, the family asks that in lieu of flowers, memorials may be
