Born on September 29, 1919, Louise was the daughter of the late Ezekiel William and Marie Rouse Addison. She loved her hometown of Brunson, SC, where she was born and lived most of her life until she moved to Seneca in 2004 to be close to her daughter and family. She was graduated from Brunson High School and attended Columbia College. She was a life-long member of the Brunson Baptist Church, where she kept the nursery for fifty years. After moving to Seneca, she attended the Episcopal Church of the Ascension.

Louise enjoyed being with her family and friends, reading her Bible, gardening, working in her yard, canning vegetables, and cooking.

Surviving are her daughter, Dr. Carolyn Tuten Ross, and husband Lowell; granddaughter, Sharon Lynne Ross; great-grandson, Tripp William Tuten Ross, all of Seneca, and nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sister, Leah Addison Lightsey, and brothers, James Clyde Addison and William Edgar Addison.

Graveside services were conducted at 2:30 PM at the Brunson Cemetery on November 5, 2010. Fellowship with family and friends followed at the Brunson Baptist Church.

The family is grateful for the excellent care and compassion provided by Louise's doctors, nurses, and caregivers and appreciative of the love, support, and many kindnesses generously given by family and friends.

God bless you.
