Just now finding out Mrs. Alexander has passed away. She was one of my companion third grade teachers when I started teaching at South Pine Street, always willing to help in anyway I needed it. I usually didn't have to ask-----she could just tell when I was about to sink and would help me out. Had I known t sooner of her passing, I would have been at her services. Please forgive me. I considered her a dear friend, and I now know she's rejoicing with two of the special men in her life, Bill and Russell, along with many other relatives and friends. Rest in peace, my fellow educator and good friend.

Louise & Mattie, you are both missed. Our neighborhood has a empty place in it where two sweet friends had been. I will never look across the street and not think of you both. R.I.P. Enjoy your family gathering with the Lord.

Louise, I will miss you. Knowing you were across the street gave me comfort. Knowing you didn't rest at night until I got home from work (at midnight!!) made me smile when I came home and looked over there and saw the glow of your kitchen light. Kind of like my gaurdian angel. Now you are really my gaurdian angel. I look forward to seeing you again someday. Tell Mattie I said hi. I love you.
