“ Such a precious lady. I met her at Seneca Health and Rehabilitation caring for her best friend. We enjoyed meals at my home, girls night out with friends and just our many long talks. I took Molly, her dog when she became sick. My prayers are with the family. Patti Nelson

“ Lynda was "one of a kind", we shared the Word of the Lord together for quite a few years. She had a good heart and loved to work for the Lord. I remember when He gave her the vision for the Golden Corner food bank, she never wanted anyone to go hungry, and she was also instrumental in starting the Rosa Clark Clinic. RIP my friend, your work is done!!
