“ What a faithful person Margie was. She visited James here at Richard Campbell Veterans Nursing Home so often that we felt she was our resident also. She was always so pleasant and always had a smile for everyone. We were not only honored to provide care for "Jimmy" but to also be a part of her life. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends at this time of loss.

We certainly will miss Ms. Margie at church. She always had a smile and a great personality. She was a great lady that loved her church and God.

Margie, you will be missed..I enjoyed every minute that I had with you..we talked just a short while ago on the telephone and everything seemed okay, but God chose another rose for His garden...Now all the Satterfield family as i knew it from years ago has vanished...with Love as you called me..Kitty
