“ This sweet lady stole my heart the first moment I met her. She always treated me like family. We laughed together and we cried together. Praying for her family and friends. Loss is hard, but Ms. MARIANNE was one of a kind. I just found out and my heart is shattered.

“ Dear Janet and family, please know I'm thinking about you all during this difficult time – and hoping you find a sense of peace and comfort in the loving support of friends, family and colleagues. While I never had the chance to know Marianne, it's easy to see from the comments and tributes posted here that she was an exceptional person, much admired and loved. I know she will be deeply missed. (Diana Walter)

“ To the family of Marianne Dillard, So saddened by the passing of Marianne. I worked for Oconee for several years and interacted with her often. She was a beautiful lady and treated others with the most respect. God bless each of you, giving you strength and peace deep within. Love your memories, cherish your memories with her. She is in God's care now and she is happy, no pain, no suffering, and waiting to be joined by you one day.
