“ Mr. Ricken, Paul, Chris, Sue, Rich and Bill, I'm so sorry for your loss, my father passed away at the end of October, it's tough, but we know where they are. To the children, what a wonderful set of parents we all had/have, they gave and tolerated alot in spite of our mischieviousness, except for you Chris, you made the rest of us look bad. Paul, great memories, great times, that will never go away. My prayers for all of you, I know she is proudly looking down on her wonderful family, waiting for your arrival one day. God Bless all of you!

“ Mr. Don, I can not tell you how sorry I am to hear of Marilyn passing. You two are some of the GREATEST people I have ever had the honor to meet, much less to live next too. I know that Marilyn is having a great time where she is now! I also bet you know that she is having quite a conversation with my mom, Emma! The morning that I called you all to tell of my mom's passing, Marilyn told me that she had a very clear and real conversation with her that night. I truly believe that she was telling Marilyn how great it is to be in heaven and to not worry. Please have peace in knowing that she is so much better now. I truly love both of you like your my own family! On behalf of Mira, Will, and Ben, may God Bless you even more than he has already done with your time with her.

Take Care!
