“ For many years, Marilyn was a co-worker and a neighbor. She was also my friend. Her generosity and thoughtfulness touched many lives, including mine. I hope that happy memories of Marilyn (and her subtle sense of humor) comfort her family at this time. While I am saddened that I am unable to attend her funeral, I am very thankful that I was able to spend time with Marilyn in February. May she rest in peace, this "good and faithful servant". Mom moved up here after Bill died. She was three minutes away, and I tried to see her every day. Dropping off food we'd made, going to local shops with her, or bringing stuff we'd bought for her at Publix. So great to have her as a FRIEND, as well as a mom in her last year. Will be missed so much. .

“ Godmom Marilyn was an incredibly compassionate and generous person who always thought of me around the holidays and was a very kind and joyful part of my life. Hearing of her loss has made me feel very sad and I know that she left such an amazing impact on our world and of all the people she knew. I will miss her greatly and I loved all of the time that I got to enjoy spending with her in life. I am so grateful to call her my godmother as she was such a caring and wonderful person. I love her dearly and I treasure all of the memories I have had with her. I send my deepest condolences and remembrance of her life. Madeline

“ Marilyn was a thoughtful, kind and loving friend to my family and me. As the Godmother to my daughter, she brought a wonderful feeling of peace and warmth when we had the privilege to be with her. I am thankful that we met her and enjoyed any and all occasions to spend time with her and Bill. I am also so glad we had the opportunity to see her last May, I can say it is a treasured moment. I will miss Marilyn, I wish more people had that automatic loving and peaceful energy surrounding them as she did. The memory of her will always bring that feeling though and that speaks volumes about how special Marilyn was to all who knew her. Lucia

“ My heartfelt condolences to Marilyn and her family. She has always had a special place in our family as one of the most kind hearted and selfless individuals in our family tree. She has brought us cheers with her interactions with us, and she has surprised my family with fun gifts throughout the last 2 decades, such as in 2010, Kirby’s epic yarn, a game that is very memorable to me. Her generosity has shined smiles on all our faces and God will welcome her with open arms as she passes on in 2025. She will be missed. - Patrick
