“ I first met Jane in the early 90s. I was working at McDonalds across the street. I was about 19 years old. She came in every night before her shift and order a Chef Salad. The manager always had a Chef Salad saved just for her.

Everyone that worked the closing shift at McDs new Jane. I told her I was going to school to become a nurse, and she gave me lots of encouragement. Years later when I met up her at Oconee Hospital I told her how much her encouragement meant to me. She was a wonderful nurse, and always had a smile on her face. I'm so sorry to hear that she has passed away. I'm praying for her family and friends. You touched so many lives with your hard work, dedication, and compassion. Your shift is over Jane. Rest easy. 🙏💕👩🏻📖
