“ Words cannot express what a wonderful man Leroy was. He and Lois showed so much love to so many people. He did not just talk the talk, he walked the walk. He loved telling others about Jesus and all of his friends are better people from having known him. I pray that Lois, Natalie, Jud, and all of his family will be comforted by knowing that he is not in pain any more. He will most definitely be missed and his memory will live with us until we see him again.

“ Uncle Leroy was one of my favorite relatives. I always looked forward to his visits. I always enjoyed listening to Leroy talk about his trips to Central America. Leroy and Jack McCall and my dad were like brothers. They would sit and listen to Bill Gaither videos for hours. Go rest high on that mountain Uncle Leroy. I know you're rejoicing with your many friends and relatives who have gone before you. Until we meet again on the other side.
