“ Maude was a dear and special friend during the years that we pastored the Scenic Heights Baptist Church. She and her husband, Clyde, were a joy to know. They were very faithful in their attendance. Maude, a beautifully dressed lady, loved the music and often made requests for her favorite hymns.

Clyde always had a joke to share with his pastor as he would leave the service each Sunday morning. They were delightful whether at Church or in their home. They loved the Lord, their Church, and were prayer warriors, too.

It was our pleasure to serve as their pastor and wife. It will be our honor to be with the family during the Memorial Service.

We cherish our memories of our precious friend, Maude, and her dear husband, Clyde.

Blessings!
