“ *Wanda, I was so very sorry to hear just 15 minutes ago about your beloved husband Max.
I am still in shock about it. I am praying for you, that our God will surround you with His love and comfort at this time. I have this urge/desire to be with you, but that isn't realistic just now. So I just have to reach out to you from across the country. You have your precious son with whom to share your loss and many blessed memories.
Everyone in the room is stunned and saddened.
There is nothing I can really say, except we love you and are praying for you.*

“ I can never forget the unforgettable Max Campbell during my interview in 2009. Scott Biggers was giving me a Plant Tour and this guy drives up on a standup forklift and I get introduced. He jokingly says "Skut Farkus?" - (character in Christmas Story with coonskin cap and yellow eyes) for those who have never seen the classic movie. We laughed and I assured him I was not one-in-the-same. I thought to myself - who in the world is "this guy"? Little did I know at the time that "this guy" would become one of most admired and loved colleagues I would have at BW Seneca who truly made this northerner feel right at home here in Seneca. Miss you already Max and have sympathy and prayers for your family and friends.
