“ I will always remember Max's smile and hear his laugh. As a child and a first cousin, I remember going with him and his siblings to Bible School at West Union Baptist Church. Later he married Sara Oakley who became our honorary adopted sister and lived with my parents while Max served in the army; then she became my co-worker at Blue Ridge Bank for 30 years; and we also went to church together at Ebenezer. Over our life we spent a lot of time together; some happy times and some sad. Today is a sad time for me but a happy time for him being united with family and friends.

“ Max Nichols was also (papa) to Demi LaGree Ciochetti for 19 1/2 years! All though not blood related these 2 shared an unbreakable bond that most biological Grandparents/Grandchildren share! His wife, Sara, Granny passed years back. Demi adored her granny and papa!!! They will never be forgotten to her and have many many years of wonderful memories!!! They will ALWAYS be remembered and loved by her until we all meet in heaven again! Thank you papa and granny for being such a huge impact and role model in her life! Gone from this life but NEVER forgotten!!! Until we meet again, we love you!!!
