“ I had the privilege to know Mike thru our bowling league (Recycled Seniors). I don't think I've ever not been personally greeted by him & with a smile as well! I just loved bowling against his team because they are the friendliest team ever! He will always be a Blue Shirt player to me because their team all wore blue shirts! When I heard of his passing I thought well, he's with Jesus now & he got to bowl Monday! I just watched the memorial video & I smiled, laughed & cried! He sure was silly! I'm praying for his family & everyone whom he knew. We will see him again, When we All get to Heaven!! Oh what a day of Rejoicing that Will Be.

“ To Mike's family:
Mike was a good friend and co-worker at Duke Energy. Mike was a talented singer, and I have pleasant memories of the many times that I was fortunate enough to listen to his music. I know that he is singing with the angels now.

“ Such a special man .. always a smile, a joke and a caring loving heart. Our last conversation on the phone a few weeks ago was one of telling funnies about he and Fud Cater and what good friends they are. Complimenting his daughter Jordan and how much he loved her, talking about his beach trips with family and friends, and how much he loved to sing! His last words were take care of Ray and I'm good either way .. whatever happens I'm good .. hey Mike today you are good! Love you and will miss you friend! ”

“ We met Mike in Tennessee and spent the day playing miniature golf with Jordan, Sam and Pyper. He treated us like he'd known us a lifetime. He was a hoot to be with. We got the opportunity to spend Christmas dinner this past year with him as well and enjoyed his company so much. Of anything I knew about Mike was that he enjoyed making us smile and laugh. One could tell that he was very proud and loved his daughter very much. It was an honor to get to spend such a short time with such a nice person.
