“ I met Little Mikey back in 1982. We worked together at Toys R Us and became good friends. He also worked at the World Trade Center and introduced me to my wife. We had a lot of great times, fun times together. Over the years, we had lost touch with each other. Recently, I decided to search for him and discovered his passing. I am deeply saddened by this. Rest in peace, my old friend. My condolences to the family.

“ I met Michael back in 1987 at an LPA National Conference in Philadelphia. He came to visit me a few times and then we just kinda lost. He had such a personality and fun to be around. I just happened to think of him and googled his name is how I found out about him passing. I hate to read about this.
