“ Mike was so sweet when we were growing up in Walhalla. He was a joy to know later in life as well and always kind to my mother when her husband Richard Byrd worked for him. Sad to know he no longer lives among us but he is truly in a better place.

“ Thank you for being a great friend and answering my call every time that I needed your advice. Now when I see water flying when I start irrigation on the golf course it will have a different feeling.

Thanks also for raising a son that helped me out of a tight spot or two when I was working at South Cove between golf course construction projects.

RIP my friend
