“ *So sorry to hear of Aunt Mildred's passing; we just got the news while we were out of town. She was such a sweet person; so positive and upbeat and always ready with a quick wit. She will be missed, however, her long life left a legacy of fond memories. Our sincere condolences to Rhoda, Faye and all the family. Warmest regards,
Ron (Earl's son) & Earlene Myers and family

“ My Precious Grandmother was a great gift from God. Over the past couple of years, I would visit her every other month. I was fortunate to have the chance to see her recently and speak to her the day before her passing, which was a blessing. Another angel has received her wings, along with Grandpa and Uncle Jim.

Mildred and Gerry were special gifts from God to all of us that were privileged to know and experience their friendship, humor, poetry, and stories of years past. They were tremendous assets to the church, and were always eager to help others in need. We'll miss her dearly, yet rejoice in her peacefully reaching her goal as she reunites with Gerry, Jim, and other family members gone on before her. Mildred was blessed to have a devoted family, along with countless friends and neighbors as a support group. Condolences to family, friends, and community. She's forever in our hearts.
