“ Mr. Isani was a wonderful man who loved to find great deals. I'm sorry I never made it to a Virginia Tech auction with him. He always sent me my favorite, Mr. Goodbar, when Jean made it back to NOVA, and I enjoyed every single one of them. Mr. and Mrs. Isani always made my visits to Blacksburg lovely. I was always a part of the family. Those times are very special to me, and I can't drive by a Denny's without thinking of him. I'm sorry I won't be there during this difficult time to pay my respects to a man who certainly earned them and to give my love to the Isani family. My heart breaks for your loss.

“ My Uncle Ali you were so dear to my heart and such a wonderful uncle. You and Aunt Sue made our summers so fun. We have so many memories that I hold dear and will treasure as long as I live. I love you and you will always live in my heart with your fabulous smile. Until I see you again 🙏💙

I was a student at Virginia Tech in the early 80s. In the coming days, I plan to tell a story of a time that Dr. Isani was very kind to me. This was about 44 years ago, but I haven't forgotten. In preparing my remarks, including the story of Dr. Isani's kindness, I Googled him and discovered that he died in 2021. I'm very late, but my condolences to his family. He was a great professor and, in my experience, and even greater man.
