My wonderful wife, Nancy, is now free from ALS, and is now living in her new body alongside her Lord, Jesus Christ. Nancy was a strong and loving woman who inspired others. She was kind and generous to all she met. She always put herself last. She was very protective of her children and grandchildren. She was a fighter until the very end. Nancy will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her.

“ My first memory of Nancy was when I met Chris the first Sunday I was back at church after gall bladder surgery....I told him to 'tell her it's a breeze'. It was not a breeze for her. I asked the next time I talked to him whether she was still speaking to me or not & he said 'she's thinking about it.' Nancy was my prayer partner when we were both in northern VA & what a special person she was. My love & prayers to Chris, Cheryl, Susan & Rob....Nancy will be greatly missed.

“ Nancy had an incredible memory, was knowledgeable in many areas and loved our Lord. She attended Oconee Bible Study and joined Utica Baptist Church with her husband. Nancy was a true friend, an encourager and giver. I never once heard her complain, but accepted her role in life, loving her family and friends. She certainly will be missed...
