

Nannette DiGuiseppe Ciaramitaro

January 4, 2010

Sunset, SC—Nannette DiGuiseppe Ciaramitaro, 82, wife of Salvatore John Ciaramitaro, of 333 Trottingwolf Trail, Sunset, SC, died Monday, January 04, 2010, at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

A native of Detroit, MI, Nannette was the daughter of the late Salvator and Catherine Cammarata DiGuiseppe. She was a talented artist who loved to sing and play piano. She was of the Catholic faith and was a member of St. Mark's Catholic Church in Lady Lake, FL. Nannette was amazing in the kitchen, known especially for her pasta sauce, "S" cookies and her salad dressing. She was a devoted wife and mother who enjoyed the daily crossword puzzles, never losing a game of scrabble, card games with friends and family, and most recently spending time with her great-grandchildren. This past summer she moved from Lady Lake, Florida to Lake Keowee in Sunset, SC, where she had beautiful views of the water and her grandchildren playing on the lake.

In addition to her husband of 62 years, Nannette is survived by daughters, Germaine Mahoney and her husband, Bill of Sunset and Virginia Nyquist and her husband, Al of Lakeport, MI; sisters, Germaine Shermitaro of Macomb, MI and Provvidenza LaMendola of Naples, FL; grandchildren, Patricia, Billy, Bryan, Carl, Nicole and George; and great-grandchildren, Connor, Peyton, Will, Blake and Matthew.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m., Thursday, January 7, 2010, from St. Andrews Catholic Church, Clemson, SC.

The family is at the residence.

The family specifically requests that in lieu of flowers, memorials be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital: www.stjude.org/waystohelp
