

Mrs. Nelda Carolyn Morgan Parker

October 17, 1938 - December 1, 2025

Carolyn Parker, surrounded by family, joined the saints in Heaven to be with her Lord Jesus Christ on December 1, 2025.

Caring and loving her family inspired Carolyn to pursue a career and lifelong love of nursing. She is remembered by so many for her intelligence, her mild and meek demeanor, and her loving care for patients and those she trained as they began their nursing careers. A wonderful cook, gardener, artisan, and nurse, her hands were never empty as she tended and visited those she loved.

In addition to her loving parents, John Henry and Ruby Ellen Jane Powell Morgan, and beloved sister, Alta Smith, she is preceded in death by her loving and fellow artisan, homemaker, and husband: Charles Parker.

Carolyn is survived by her selfless and gracious brother: Larry Morgan; her faithful and compassionate daughter: Janice Parker Ellenburg; and her devoted grandchildren: Kendra, Greta, and Grant Ellenburg.

In addition, she is survived by niece: Deborah Jones; nephew: Michael Morgan; and many other doting family members.

“ I worked under Mrs Parker at Oconee Memorial Hospital in the late 1970s. She was so patient, quiet, and rational in the face of chaotic situations. All her staff respected her and did whatever she asked of them. I never heard a cross word out of her. She is one of the most pleasant people I've had the pleasure of meeting in my lifetime. I'm so sorry, Janice, for your loss.
