“ I am so sorry that this wonderful family has to go through this painful stage of such a wonderful woman. This lady never met a person that she did not give that lovely smile to. I think God made her face that way because I never saw her without it. Mrs Stone will always live on through her beautiful family and every person that has ever crossed her path. Her house wasn't a house it was a home with welcoming arms to everyone that went cross through that door, and then you wasn't just another person , you became family.... you will be dearly missed and forever loved.
