“ Dear Babs, Jan and family,
Don and I were sorry to hear about your mother's death. She was a great neighbor. As my children were growing up and trying to sell their school's candy items, etc, the children's first stop would be Mrs. Abbott's home. My children knew she would buy things for the schools. Don and I knew that Nina loved children so very much and was very interested in our school system. We always loved to pass by her house to see what flowers were blooming around her white fence.
If we can do anything for the family, don't hesitate to call us.
