“ *Kathy and Keith,
Condolences to you and your family in the passing of your precious mother. I didn't know her personally, but I do remember each of you and I could always tell your raising at home was good as you both were always so kind and fun to be around. God bless you two and all your family. I know you have many good memories of your mother and those you will cherish.*

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. We have wonderful memories of Nina as her Pastor at Newry Church of God. She and Harold were both pillars in the Church and were faithful in every way. We are sorry that distance keeps us from being there with you. Truly there must be a glad reunion in heaven with her beloved Harold,
