“ So sorry to hear about Nona.
 Rarely saw Nona in the past several years but she was always the same.
 Always laughing and joking.
 I remember Nona and the family fondly as good neighbors on Broad St. in Westminster many years ago.
 My mama and Nona’s mama were best of friends.
 Love and prayers to the family.

So sorry for your loss. Nona was such a cut up and precious friend. Met her many years ago when she would visit Dot at her house on Hwy.76. She would walk out to our little country store and we'd just sit and talk and play with Dot's children. Praying for her family and friends.....

“ On behalf of Aunt Mildred- Ma always looked forward to visits with Nona. They shared laughs and memories of days gone by - the sweet things Nona said and did as a child, recipes, and their liking for Southern cooking. Nona always brought sunshine. She will be forever remembered and loved.
