

Norma Jean Wayco

January 4, 2011

Seneca, SC—Norma Jean Wayco, age 65 of Seneca, formerly of Atlanta, GA, died peacefully surrounded by family and friends in Hilton Head, SC on January 4, 2011 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer.

Before retiring with her husband William (Bill) Wayco to Seneca in 2004, Norma's career as an industry leader in banking and financial services spanned over 30 years. Locally, Norma was a member of Welcome Wesleyan church, its Women's Group and Missionaries in Haiti program, and was an active and generous supporter of community organizations including Seneca Newcomers Club, Hospice of the Foothills and the Festival of Trees.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her step-children Laurie Curran of Suwanee, GA, Doug Wayco and his wife Amy of Conyers, GA, her niece Traci Laster and her husband Chris State Road, NC, her granddaughters Stefanie Wayco of New York, NY, Jennifer Hand and her husband Matt and a great-grandson Bennett Hand of Atlanta, her beloved dogs Molly and Maggie, and countless colleagues and friends.

Memorial services will be held locally at 12:00 PM, Friday, January 7 at Welcome Wesleyan Church, 1040 Ebenezer RD, Seneca, SC 29672.

A memorial service will also be held in Atlanta on Sunday, January 9.

To honor Norma's life and legacy, the family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations in her memory be made to Oconee Hospice of the Foothills, 298 Memorial DR, Seneca, SC 29672, 864-885-7909.

“ Dear Bill & family,
My prayers are with you and her wonderful family, that she loved so dearly. Norma is now with her Savior, we talked about him often, she was very devoted to him, so in Heaven there was a great celebration. You know how she loved celebrations.
Much love, Buena Hyder##imported-begin##Buena Hyder##imported-end##
