“ We all loved Aunt Ocie so much and we are so sorry for your loss.

Mom (Mary Ann) is on the road and so she will not be able to come personally and give her respects but she told me to tell all of you she is thinking of you and that your Mom was a very special person to her. She shared a funny memory with me and said your Mom got her down the night before she married my father (Hubert) and plucked her eyebrows and she was yelling in pain and your Mom just laughed and said it would make her look so much better - LOL.

Please let us know if there is anything we can do.

Love,

Becky, Jeanie, Sissy, Bruce, Darrell & Mary Ann##imported-begin##Rebecca Henson##imported-end##

“ Momma, I can't believe you're gone; but I know you've made Heaven your home. Oh, how I miss you! But as I continue on in life a part of you will always be in my heart! Thank you for the prayer warrior you were and having taught me to be and for teaching me that God is the answer to ALL of life's problems. You may not have given me great material riches; but you made me a millionaire, when you taught me; and gave me the Holy Bible. Mom I will carry on in the Gospel just as your dying words to me "was to tell the world Jesus is coming soon and if you don't know Him as your Savior repent, repent; and you can be a part of God's Holy family." Momma now you're teaching the angels how to sing, and I will see you again and we will sing together around God's throne. Forever in God's grace; your only daughter
