My heart just melted to hear of the passing of Odell. He was always such a joy when we used to go to minister in song at different churches. God I pray for comfort, peace and strength for this precious family. Help them in the days and weeks ahead to cling to you for wisdom. In Jesus name. I love you.

“ So sad to know Odell has passed. My prayers for all of the family. Some of you may know me pretty well especially Karen and Bradley. Odell was a great friend and we talked a lot even apart, he preached in my stead a few times at Brasstown Baptist Church and we always wanted to get together and go fishing or metal detecting on my land. My best comfort is knowing he is with the Lord now and is happy, no longer suffering, where he always wanted to be. God bless you all and be with you.

“ Dear Karen, Bradley, Candice, Ms. Clara, and family, Fred and I are so sorry about Odell, our precious nephew! We called him our South Carolina son! What a wonderful, positive man of God he was! The memory of our times together will be cherished and will forever be in our hearts. His presence will be missed in our family, but we will be with him again in the portals of Glory to ever be with our Lord!
