“ Being separated from a loving daughter or son must be the most painful thing a parent has to bare. We are so sorry to learn of Pam's death and the health struggles she has faced. Now we know she is pain free, and that must be a bittersweet feeling. We love you and are praying for the entire family.

“ I will never forget the beautiful young girl I met so many years ago - she was such a good daughter to her parents and always there for them. I can still hear her voice to this day. Marcie and I used to make her be our 4th when we played Pinochle. I always had to be Jimmy's partner so he could bless me out if I played the wrong card - Pam was just a kid but she took it all in stride, even to the point of laughing with us at her Daddy. How such a wonderful person could be lost so young I will never understand. She was the best without a doubt. I will think of her often and the love and kindness she brought with her wherever she went. Sweet darling, Pam, I will miss you.
