“ Clyde, my friend, I am so sorry that I did not know of Pat's passing until late today. Although, we have been traveling, dealing with some continuing health issues and family duties, I should have called you. I thought of you often, but did not do what I should have done.

Ever since I watched my father die a long protracted death, I have believed that passing into the arms of the Lord where there is no pain and suffering is a blessing. We mourn for our own loss, but we celebrate their gain and comfort.

Please accept our sincere condolences to you and your family.

“ we have so many memories of Clyde and Pat as their son Barry was in our home often, camped with us, in our girls weddings. Through the years we saw them and reflected on those days. Pat was always so witty, and young at heart. You have our most sincere sympathy as you grieve for someone who was always herself and a life lived well. Jeanelle and Edwin Gibson

“ *Clyde and family,
LC and I were saddened to hear of Mrs. Pat's passing. But, we all know she is truly in a better place. Mrs. Pat was a good neighbor to us. When we were first moved in the neighborhood, she was the first neighbor we met. We loved Mrs. Pat. She was always kind and thoughtful. I can picture her walking the neighborhood. She will be missed.
I pray for the McCall family. She loved each of you very much. The comforting fact is that you will all see her again someday. I am sure she will be waiting for her family to join her. With her new mind, her new legs, she will be greeting you in her glorious body that God promised her when she entered into the gates of glory. May God bless each of you and give you peace and comfort at this time.
We express our sympathy and love to each of you,
