“ Pat was my best friend we go back in 1974 at the City Poolroom.Larry knew me and that I patronize the Poolroom.He hoped me and Pat would hit it off.Well yes we did.Pat was a good woman.Had a good heart.Funny as could be.I cherished our friendship.Taught her pool and what I knew.I worked days she closed .We would make friends and tried to help people that needed it.Cooked deer stews and tried to have fun with customers .I moved 30 yrs.ago.But would keep in touch.Pat and her family were special to me.We all got along well.Pat and I we shared a lot of things.Never forgot what we had.We've been threw a lot.Pat you can rest in peace now.I've never forgotten you.We rode together as a team.My condolences and prayers are with the family.Y'all know this is hard.Prayers to all.
