“ Mama,

I hope you are dancing in heaven today! I can't imagine the birthday celebration you must be having today. Jesus must have the angel's choir singing the most beautiful Happy Birthday ever heard. I know a birthday party here on earth could never compare to the heavenly one you received today. I love you so big Mama! I miss you like crazy!

*Love,
Alisa*

“ I remember Patsy from high school and also know her husband from growing up at Picket Post. Patsy's mother was one of our great cooks at Pine Street and always filled my plate a little fuller when the dessert was that wonderful apple pie. She was indeed a very sweet lady so from what I have read about Patsy, the apple really doesn't fall far from the tree.

Please know our sympathy is extended to the entire family and you will be remembered in my prayers.

“ *Mama,
I miss you more than you could possibly imagine. I love you so big! I am blessed with the memories that we made during your journey here on earth. I will continue to dance and sing off key for you. I hope that even through your pain I made you smile in your final days. You took part of my heart to heaven with you and the other half is left broken. I hope that you are dancing in heaven, watching over us here on earth and eating Lorna Doones with Granny. Your wings were ready but I was not!*
*Love and miss you,
Alisa*
