“ Sandy, We knew your Mom for years. She was one of our favorites! I remember you also many years ago. I knew you lived in SC not far from here. I was a Schmidt before marriage. When my Mom and Dad died in 1980, we had a head stone carved and were going to bury their ashes in the cemetary...never did. In the meantime, we noticed that their stone was VERY close to your Dad's and I told Polly...she said not to worry about it. We had brought it back from Ga, & just pushed it off. That was at least 20 yrs ago. I knew she went to live near/with you some time ago. We have thought about her often and the good times we had. I bet Katelyn is a beauty if she looked like her grandmother even just a little bit! Our condolences. Gracie & Marshall and the good times we had together quite often.##imported-begin##Gracie & Marshall Welch##imported-end##
