“ As a young child, Phillip lived near my family for awhile. There were six of us kids, and I recall Phillip had one room in his home dedicated for toys. We would visit Phillip and get to play in that room. We were so envious! First, for all those toys, secondly, he had no one he had to share with! Lol! I have always known Phillip to be a strong good man full of grace and character and genuine to the bone. Loved by more than plenty!

“ Phillip and I met on Main Street during our daily walks about two years ago. He was walking east and my dog and I were walking west. Later I encouraged him to come to my office at voter registration to vote absentee because he was going out of state for treatment. He was a friendly and happy man and I am blessed to have met him. You have my heartfelt sympathy and prayers. Martha Wright
