“ Ralph served as our interim pastor at New Bethel Baptist Church in Carnesville Georgia in the 1990s and I still credit him as the best Revelations teacher I have ever had the pleasure of learning from. I recently discovered that I have a compact cassette player with a tape that my daddy recorded during those lessons and was so excited to hear his voice again. I hope too soon convert it to digital format and hopefully pass it down to my son and grandchildren. There have been very few men I have ever known as precious as my friend Ralph and I cherish the thought of seeing him again someday.

“ Joyce, Glenda, Mike and Mark, so many years have passed since you were our church family, but those years can never erase the many wonderful memories we had. The many wonderful revivals, the many Watch-Night singings, the many 5th Sunday night singings (My mom was Velma Jaynes), and of course, the many wonderful sermons and lessons of God he taught us. Ralph is now rejoicing with The Lord, and enjoying his Second Life as he preached about, and lived each day. God Bless you and the family and one day we will be all together once again, rejoicing together, and still praising God, from whom all blessings flow!
