“ As a child my memories of Uncle Ralph were great. I remember sitting at the table and feasting on his lake catch of the day. I remember him entertaining us at the table practicing his turkey callers. I remember the many green beans and corn that he grew. I can see my Granny Butts now sharpening her knife to go help cut the corn off or all of us sitting around breaking beans. Also, as a child I enjoyed many watermelons on the carport. Thank you Uncle Ralph for the special times you made for me as a child.
