“ The fondest thoughts and memories of growing up across the street from you guys flood my mind each time I look out the window. Never knowing if Jerry was serious or joking was always a challenge (but fun). Though we are not family we loved you all just the same because of all the time you both spent with my Mom and Dad. Helen, please know I am still across the street and am always there if you need me. Much love and fond memories. Peggy Duncan
