Randy loved animals, and took in countless homeless animals to help them find loving homes. He had so many talents. He was a 4th degree black belt in Karate, skilled to become a professional in billiards and pool. He loved playing the guitar, a love he took from his dad, who played bluegrass music with family and friends during Randy's and his sister's "growing up" years.

Randy was of the Baptist faith. Everyone who knew Randy knew he loved God, his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, his family, and his country.

Randy is survived by his sister, Nancy Browning Ratliff, his brother-in-law, David Ratliff, other extended family members and countless friends, and his rescued dogs and cats.

Condolences/cards may be sent to the home of Nancy & David Ratliff 602 Blackjack Rd., Westminster, SC 29693.
